A lease involving $2,000,000 was slosed yesterday on the building at 620 Fifth avenue by Dobbs & Co., hatters, of 244 and 618 Fifth avenue. According to announcement made yesterday, the arm will tear down the present building at 620 Fifth avenue and will erect aix story marble and limestone structure, which will form an "L," with s frontage at 2 West Fiftieth street, for their own occupancy.

The property is on the west side of Fifth avenue, north of a point midway between West Forty-ninth and West Fiftleth streets, about a block north of the Fifth Avanue Marble Collegiate Church. The rental is the highest that has been reported from the upper Fifth avenue section in a long time. The lease was made through W. I. Edwards of 629 Fifth avenue.

BUYS BREVOORT MANOR.

George F. Baker, vice-president of the First National Bank, has purchase through Worthington Whitehouse, Inc., the Brevoort mansion, at 24 Fifth avenue, one of the most picturesque dwellings in the Washington Square section and one of the first of the early homes to be eracted on the avenue. Through this interesting deal the manor house which has changed hands but twice in its entire history, comes into the pos-session of a direct descendant of the original owner, Mrs. Baker being the great-granddaughter of Henry Brevoort, who erected the structure at the north-rest correct of Night street about 1834. west corner of Ninth street about 1834. The house has been the home of the De Rham family since 1850, when Henry De Rham acquired the resity from Henry Brevoort. Charles De Rham now Henry Brevoort. Charles De Rham now occupies it, and from him Mr. Baker will take title to the property, which also includes another dwelling and two brick stable buildings at 5, 7 and 9 West Ninth street. The entire property is assessed for taxation purposes at more than $220,000 and occupies a combined plot fronting $9.3 feet on Fifth avenue and 250 feet on Ninth street. Just what Mr. Baker intends to do with the property was not stated, but it is certain that it will continue to be used as a residence. Mr. Baker at present occupies a handsome residence at
